featured projects:

TravelSpend: An app to track your spending while traveling the world. It's perfect for you if you are planning your next trip or are already on vacation. If you travel in a group you can share expenses with friends and family to see "who owes who." (link)

Roadie: A clean and simple route planner for roadtrippers and campers - no matter if you map out your annual cross-country road trip or you live the #vanlife dream and explore the world in your campervan. Nothing beats the freedom of the open road. (link)

Cimienio: Review products you own and make money online. Help other users with their buying decisions by honestly rating your products. With over 1,000 products clearly sorted into categories, you are sure to find many products that you own yourself. (link)
